IS I DID FOR THEE-WHAT DOEST THOU FOR ME!"

education a print of Christ in the mir of a German Divine ] i gave my life for thee, My provious blood I shed, That they might st ransomed be And quickened from the dead; What hast thou given for me? Lapant long years for thee In wearings and woe; That one eternity if pay them inlight'st know, Hast thou spent one for me? My Pather's house of light, My rainbow-circled throne,

I let for ear bly night. in wanderings sad and lone; I left all for thee; Hartalion lest nught for me? pantlered much for thee, More than thy tongue can tell. Or historist agony, To resome they from hell; ( suffered much for them; What does thou hear for me? And I brought down to thee. flux is from my bonne above. My predominal my love;

guest brought to thee:

and to have a very friendly regard for the chief. I don't knowshow to account for this sudden friendship on his part, unless it is of Yazoo had just finished a satisfac-

duty which all Sheriffs owe to our last Leg-

SOUTHERN CONGRESSMEN.

Having a Jolly Time-A Regular

[DEFERRED TELEGRAM.]

guests expressed belief that a new era of good feeling between the sections would reternal relations between the North and South, and took most hopeful views of the future of the nation. Its resourould not fail to be built up on a permaeral views of the Southerners and the latter

Washington, April 27 .- A resolu-

can dollar every times he comes there. On Sundays

PINE KNOT.

what had thou brought to me? as he the life be given. Thy yours for me be spent, And Joy with suffering blent; now they sell for me, and I will we come thee!

A Local Sketch.

THE OLD MAN UNFORTUNATE

ght hands, under annoyed at first by the interruption of his hat their left hands | stream of Hail Columbia, then being poured underwent a nent and enduring basis. Governor Ricwice her age, its by which men of both sections were era of Irivolity, and brought into personal sympathy one with shady side of three scores.

The ser- sult in strengthening the common country.

Ind it hard to raily, and ton the downward plain.

Indicate that the raily and the score of the club expressed themselves delighted with the liband him all looked dark and gloomy, ung wife from North Carolina, and hot: rected a log cabin in an uncultivated wilerness of Georgia, and by dint of his own tion was adopted last evening by the abor built up a respectable fortune. Why Mrs. R. B. Hayes Temperance Associa- From the Elko (Nev.) Post.] could be not now go West where the lands tion setting forth that the Association measure the self-delusions of insideous old would not allow wine to be used at state despicable creature, but he threw him to- "copy" was so low in reaching the press hour age? The old man forgetting that the dinners, and the resolution further ago, his money was exhausted, and the excursion steamer on the Delaware muscle work." whispered words of sweet Christian comnounces her as complete a "fraud" as her ing the sources of eternal truth.—Johnone, and their presence would be a that?" fort to the suffering and despairing mother, husband.

THE WEEKLY CLARION.

Vol. XLI .--- No 24. JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, WEDNESDAY, MAY 8, 1878.

and put a small sum -- all that he had -- into AGRICULTURAL AND MECHANICAL A WONDERFUL GENIUS.

COLLEGE. nine act of the good Samaritan, and the ances should be by postal order, Rev. Mr. Shaw, the earnest Christian Evan- Editors Clarion: As yet few industrial gelist, and popular temperance revivalist, or manual labor schools have succeeded so A Life of Eccentricity, Study and was the modest hero of this achievement | well as military schools. All agree that | By the kindness of neighbors an humble physical vigor is essential to healthy mental From the Boston Herald.] shelter was found and suitable provisions improvement, and that proper physical provided temporarily. But men and strength can be preserved only by a systewomen in these cold and hard times are matic course of exercise such exercise has done more than any other to perfect and loath to take upon themselves additional been successfully practice in military accad- advance the various systems of telegraburdens. Everybody seems to be already emics.

provided with all the responsibilities he is Can Agriculture and the Mechanic arts bie zeal for the accomplishment of other able to carry; and the old man disc-rned furnish a system of exercise consistent with inventions and improvements. Sketches Into the spectral rain and gloom, the shadow of the wolf creeping stealthily literary pursuits? Military schools, instead and reminiscenes of his life therefore are in at the humble door. His sick wife need- of enabling boys to support themselves interesting to all connected with the use ed medicine, and his hungry children while acquiring an education, have been of electricity, and not only to these, but needed bread. There was but one thing that quite expensive. A youth at West Point to the world at large, which he has so he could do. The necessity was urgert costs the public about the same as a soldier, greatly benefitted. Relief must come quickly; and there was and every soldier costs the United States only one way to get it, honestly. He chose one thousand dollars per year. On the con- 1730. Thomas Edison was a prominent the honest way, and brayely went forward. Fary, manual labor schools have been ex- bank official on Manhattan Island durin it. Some repulsed him. Some told him pected to give a boy a chance to pay his way ing the revolution, and his name appears to go to the poor house. Some gave him a to an education. to read the heroic struggle between humili- ly season-that farmers and mechanics will times for beginning each quarter. Say: As I said in the out set, the old man visit-1st Quar. 21 Monday in January, 11 wk's.

As I said in the out set, the old man visit-ed the Auditor's office again the other even-3d " " " " April. ing. He seems to feel easy in that office. 4th " October 11 " inspired by a habit of weakness on the part | Total emphasized by an American half or Mexithis occasion the handsome high Sheriff Saturdays and vacations. 93 work. . 365 days. tory settlement with the office, and was giving the boys the benefit of his righteous Omitting clothing let us calculate the exdenunciation of the late revenue law-a Averaging Tuition at $1 per week $ 44 00 Board $2 50 islature-when the old man entered and Or for fifty-two weeks ther evening. The boys in was handed a chair. He stated his case A liberal estimate for wages would be lindly, and again. It was the old story, and had grown Allowing 5 or 4 or 6 hours for study. 4 " 5" 6 " " work, 9 " 10 " 8 " " sleep. 3 " 2 " 1 " " ams'm't. out upon the late Legi-lature, but the old with many man went on, and Yazon was detected in Tt'l bo'rs 24 24 24 was a soldier the act of slipping a five dollar bill into his hands. Yazoo evidently undertook to do this business on the sly—he seemed to be sleep eight hours, we have twelve hours to rather ashamed of it, and didn't want any- be divided between work and study. Av-

In running machinery of every kind, ar-rangements must be made for all the hours. the executive chamber, and each was pre-the old man the city half was visited, where the Mayor getting a proper knowledge of business and and several aldermen welcomed the guests.
The old South church and Fancuit hall were next visited. At 3 o'clock a large made as useful in developing the muscles as regular Saturday gathering. Senators La-mar and Hill were absent. Senators Gor-bost-rowing and other fashionable exer-

The Virginia Bell-Punch

ial prosperity of the nation. Senator Gor-Dealers Don't Like it and a Good Many Manage to "Beat" It.

RICHMOND, April 18 .- The Moffett liquor register has been in operation in There seemed to ces were limitless, and with peace and Virginia for five or six months, and the merits and defects of the law under diversion, and he speaking for Massachusetts, extended to fragmentary official reports and newspaper statements, which are the best as against $137,000 realized by the old

That is so as to first-class saloons,

Something to Admire After All

gether in a leisure moment, not even it caused complaint. bouyancy of youth and the glory of man-hood had departed from him forever, and WHEREAS, On the occasion of a ban-brains in his hollow head. He threw him filled with the idea of a second rejuvenation quet given at the Union League Club at back into the scrap-pile, never dreamfilled with the idea of a second rejuvenation of his of himself and a second rehabitation of his fortune in the life-giving and bounty-yielding plains of the West, sold out his household goods and set out for the El Dorado.

There was a touching scene recently of the scrap-pile, never dreaming the infernal idiot would stray away and bounty-ing his long sword; "Chevaliers!" cried Manny, brandishing the infernal idiot would stray away and inflict his loathsome presence upon family, but I have no thought of shunning those who think and act differently. It is a mistake to think that I should the others, hastening to arms.

There was a touching scene recently of the scrap-pile, never dreaming the infernal idiot would stray away and inflict his loathsome presence upon family, but I have no thought of shunning those who think and act differently. It is a mistake to think that I should but will be able to cover a lounge respect-sister in Died the others, hastening to arms. And here he is, with his wife, now a helpless invalid and his two little sons, one helpless invalid and his two little sons, one shape again; he feebly remark: "God crosses of wreaths and flowers to place on overlooked the plain. the got halfway to his intended destination.

When he reached this point, a month or so of claret punch at dinner on board the when he reached this point, a month or so of claret punch at dinner on board the when he reached this point, a month or so of claret punch at dinner on board the page.

In five minutes she saw a body of the comfortable than when first purchased the page.

When he reached this point, a month or so of claret punch at dinner on board the page.

When he reached this point, a month or so of claret punch at dinner on board the page.

The loved C—— as he comfortable than when first purchased the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the page.

When he reached this point, a month or so of claret punch at dinner on board the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased that man on brains, that of his own little one. "She'll take the string that the comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he countered the use that doubt he comfortable than when first purchased the comfortable than when first purchased the page.

The loved C—— as he can be comfortable than when first purchased the comfortable than when first purchased the comfortable than when first purchased the comfortable than t and noticing the sad distress of the family, the name of Mrs. R. B. Hayes and pro man could continue to commit as poison- place upon the grave of their lost little most wore her colors.

Interesting Reminiscences of

Thomas Alva Edison. Usefulness

The inventions of Thomas A. Edison are the worder of the world; he has on the Continental money. The race is nickle as the cheapest way out of the an- Let us look at the matter calmiy and see long-lived. Edison's great-grandfather Vain all my patience, vain my tears, noyance. And some were patient enough how far such expectations can be justified: lived to be 102, and his grandfather 103 to listen to his story, and penetrating enough | Premising that we must recognize no sick | years old. His father, Samuel Edison, is now living, aged 74, and in perfect ation plainly marked out by the lines or his face. These were generally more liberal in four terms or quarters and have stated son, was of Scotch parentage, but born in Massachusetts. She was finely educated, and for several years taught in a Canadian high school. She was indus- Fer hope intensifies my pain trious, capable, literary and ambitious wo man. She died in 1862 at 67 years of age. Thomas Alva Edison was born February 11, 1847, at Milan, Erie county, Ohio, but his parents removed to Port of the said chief to feed him on rough jokes | Now let us estimate the time for study | Huron, Mich., when he was seven years old, which has since been their home. Edison never went to school over two months in his life. His mother taught him spelling, reading, writing and arithmetic. She was a fine reader, and often read aloud to the family. Edison acquired his love of reading from her. At $110 00 ten years old he had read "The Penny $130 00 Encyclopedia," "Hume's England," "Gibbon's Rome," and other books of like character and value. In his reading he passed over nothing superficially, and to this concentration is due the accoraplishment of

MANY ASTONISHING RESULTS. While disliking mathematics, he was At 12 he became a train-boy on the Grand rand square, it would find in the most worthy pensionary substitution ought to see it—and I know he is going to be divided between work and study. Averaging the time, we will say:

an exclusive newsdealers' right, having the many qualities which astonished her glory of giving depends upon the spirit that prompts it.

The old man unfortunate is still with us. The o > ning to Detroit he became acquainted ardent, was Walter de Manny, the flower soon after purchased some old instru- arms and bore her through the fortress.

unteered to assist Edison liquor license system. In the cities- route, Edison would go back by freight the ages of chivalry. Senator Morgan followed and gave deterance to similar sentiments. Mayor Pierce, and to a thing like this. The more he speaking for the city of Boston, echoed the speaking for the city of Boston, e this. The more ne speaking for the city of Boston, echoed the spea Ex-Governor Gaston and Mr. Ellis followed than half the drinks sold are registered. to secure employment in the telegraph castle of Hennebont. The flower of her sily discern that the in the same strain. Politics were entirely tasteful to him, and tabooed. Gen. Hooker's speech was one of in a jewelry store, and Edison had from the table, and the knights, elevat-The liquor-dealers are still opposed to an opportunity to indulge his mechaning their large goblets, were pledging the missing links in the most striking and powerful of the courses the enterprise. The liquor-dealers are still opposed to the spoke of the indu-trial resources of the South in glowing terms, and, alluding to the approaching emancipation of the law. With rare exceptions they long to the approaching emancipation of slaves in the West Indies, said that when a squire entered the hall in a great to Stratford. Capada as night By their kindly inwas favorably conwas favorably conwas favorably conwas favorably conand when the old the question, Miss would be that the great trade of sugar production would pass largely if not wholly to the South where they had many years the start in organization of free labor. He it, and a speedy concluded by predicting a commercial fuconceinated by predicting a country of almost intake lager at 5 cents. The tax on lager conceivable grandeur, and said that North is one-half cent. Since the Moffett law a way that when turned it would write spain and the three knights who comon comfortably. smothered the swith hooks of steel in common bonds of as with nooks of steel in common conds of material interest, as well as of fraternal been lessened in size ten per cent. In This the watchman turned for him while would be put to death unless Hennebont either event, however, the consumer pays Edison slept. He was discharged from was surrendered within one hour. here by the train dispatcher for an error, and soon after obtained a situation at death!" repeated Jeanne, rising and cast-But there are many bars patronized al Adrian, Mich. Here he had a small ing around her a bold and indignant appeared equally gratified at their recep- most exclusively by negroes, who have shop and a few tools, where his spare glance as if to ask the heart of all her never been in the habit of paying more time was used in repairing instruments followers: " Shall they indeed be put to than five cents per drink for whisky. and making such experiments as he had death?" stead and moved on an humbler Lots of Morals and no Manners. They will not pay more now. The con-It is to be hoped that the following sequence is that the proprietors have to situation through a violation of a rule.

Two months later he went to Indianapo"No, they shall not die! I swear it by dispatch from Washington, which relates in addition, take the risk of defrauding lis, where he invented his first successful good sword and by yourself, madame!" how for a second time the "Mrs. Rutration upon the worn out soil of Geortration upon the worn out soil of Geortherford B. Hayes Temperance Society" the State of part of the tax, in order to automatic repeater, which is an arrangemake anything like their former profits. ment for transferring the writing from gia, and turned his gaze to the tresh El Do- has lost its Christian name and charac- In such bars most of the fraud is perpe- one telegraph line to snother without the ter, will not be taken as a general argu-ment against the use of water, cold or serve the law.

It also better class ob-medium of a sending or receiving op-erator. Being unable to take "press" a sweet smile thanked them.

But Manny saw, or fancied, that the two more recording registers, one to re- his comrades, and, feeling inspired by can tie up a parcel or sharpen a pencil. ine forever. Protected by her august A political aspirant, during a discus copied. When this was done he told the eloquent than his words, "what will you tools with as much dexterity as their change. were cheap and smiling in fertility, and was formed and named in honor of the sion in this country, in alluding to his sending operator to "rush him," which give him who will bring you your three brothers. A great deal depends upon do this thing over again? Oh, who can declaration of Mrs. Hayes that she rival, said: "God may have created that gave him a brief reputation, for the captive knights safe and sound within one training, and it will often serve a woman

Heart to Heart for a Moment. without raising her eyes:

Cincinnati Commercial.]

THE GRAVELESS DEAD.

A strange thing for my heart to crave, And yet the boon I covet moste presence of a new-made grave To prove my treasure really lost, for I could look above the sod That lay above his pulseless breast, And sing my gratitude to God That he had surely reached his rest, no such shrine is granted me

Where grief her healing tears might shed; Mine naught but black uncertainty Whether he liveth or if dead. Out from its peace and love and light,

My husband stept into the night, And since has never blest my sight-Tho' I have watched for him to come Till fields are green which then were white, I know he went not thus to stay-His heart so true was wholly mine-His ancestors came to this country in And had be meant but brief delay

Word, look or touch had shown its sign, But no farewell was given to me s into murky night he stept, Whose darkness, like death's mystery, Hath close the fearful secret kept.

Vain all my quest to find it out; Gaining no answer to its prayer-, My heart is dying of its doubt! If God would tell me be is dead. And tell me nothing else beside, could litt up my westy head And ask not when or how he died;

By trying to dissuade dispair! All day long the street I watch. Each gray-haired man that comes toward

But now my heart-strings suffer strain

Beyond their mortal power to bear;

All night I listen for the latch To sound, and tell me it is he! I turn my Bible's pages o'er, I search in vain each well-worn leaf. omfort and pledge, so rich of yore, Seem valueless to meet this griet. And son shadow worse than death Ve Is all the heavens above my head, Blinding the vision of my faith Till even God himself seems dead!

A Legend of Brittany.

Every one is familiar with the name of fourteenth century-that age of heroines granted me on the hand," -maintained the rights of her husband and child in the celebrated contest between the Counts of Montford and Blois Trunk railroad, and soon after acquired that the warlike Countess, in displaying before Manny recovered. height of fifteen feet. His favorite is at her feet, thought her as beautiful as Victor Hugo. His mind is so retentive her enemies did terrible when she dashed attending lectures at such times as would car, he fitted up a laboratory, where ex- large dark eyes and golden hair as among periments were common while running her enemies with the redoubtable sword on his route, until his bottle of phlospho of her husband. Be it observed, howrus fell and set the car on fire. He pur- ever, to the honor of our heroine, that her chased 300 pounds of the old type of the lovers never gained aught but their sighs tain, is within half an inch of eight feet printed the Grand Trunk Herald, filled her name upon her adversaries, the only with railroad gossip and other informa-sufferers of this innocent gallantry. Of tion of interest on the road, and had a all her adorers the goodliest among the

His renown and his services place him stations in advance of the train. He belin the first rank among her followers. elegraph, and determined to learn the bont he adopted her colors; the next he business. He purchased a work on the declared her the lady of his thoughts; electric telegraph and, is conjunction the next he avowed his passion before all with James Ward, one of assistants, con- the assembled knights, and not a day height of Mr. and Mrs. Bates. They structed a line between their residences passed that he did not break a lance or in Port Huron, using stovepipe wire, in slay an enemy in honor of her; and he they stand within one inch and a half of sulated with bottles placed on nails driven had his reward. When she went to bat-His household servants noivy shadow gradually settling in the string party. The club turned out in full make experiments in farming or machinery numbers to do honor to the Southrons, and beset him to go and see the string party. The club turned out in full make experiments in farming or machinery make experiments in farming or machinery without incurring outlays beyond the value of the first magnets were of wire, wound in full make experiments in farming or machinery without incurring outlays beyond the value of the first magnets were of wire, wound in full were absent. Senators Gordon, Morgan and Hill were absent. Senators Gordon and Hill were absent. Senat into trees and crossed under an exposed the it was he who handed her her arms; sixteen reet mgn. sixteen reet mgn. son of Anak, who likes to take his ease at this time a spinster
She had been an inor years, had watched of the departed relict.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the most prominent discovering first attempt to generate a current was the departed relict.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the world of wonders. Unlike most prominent discovering first attempt to generate a current was the departed relict.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the world of wonders. Unlike most prominent discovering first attempt to generate a current was the departed relict.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the self-conspicuous by her prettiness and the coair. Among the most prominent discovering first attempt to generate a current was the departed relict.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the wonders. Unlike most giants, he is well proportioned, with rags for insulation, and a piece of spring brass was used for a key. The first attempt to generate a current was discovered the drawbridge of her castle; and one destinated at its full value.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the wind of wonders. Unlike most giants, he is well proportioned, with rags for insulation, and a piece of spring brass was used for a key. The district and one who she was and was discovered the drawbridge of her castle; and one description of the departed relict.

The first magnets were of wire, wound the wind of wonders. Unlike most giants, he is well proportioned, with rags for insulation, and a piece of which was he who gave her his hand to cross the different coards and the coair. Among the most prominent the by means of cats rubbed vigorously to- by a stroke which Manny had no time to gether at each end. This failing, they parry, it was he who received her in his ments and other materials, and a success | If the Chevalier, emboldened by these was accomplished. About two months favors, ever ventured to sue for any othafterward, as the railroad train was ers, the name of the Count de Montfort switching some cars on the side track at during his life and afterwards the crape Mt. Clements station, the agent's little which fluttered on the helmet of the noble boy, two years old, crept upon the track widow was sufficient to remin | him that in front of the approaching cars. Edi- as the wife had lived for her husband the son, seeing the danger, sprang to the widow would live for her infant alone. ground, seized the child and barely saved Still Sir Walter de Manny once obtained his life J. A. McKenzie was the agent a more briliant and a more tender reward, and operator, in gratude, for the act vol- and to understand its value we must remember that we are speaking not of the Court of Louis XIV., but of the manners Thereafter, on reaching the end of his of Brittany in the severest and purest of reports without frequent breaks, he rigged smile was more tender for him than for It is generally supposed that no woman in roars, and the pretty flirt was a heroceive and one to repeat the embossed writing at slower speed so it could be "Madame!" said he, with a look more writing at slower speed so it could be "Madame!" said he, with a look more have known girls who could handle most meal he had eaten in two days. Ho then met and cuirass, lance and battle axe gleamed out flitfully. The clouds and the confusion centred on one point, on the tents of Don Louis and his ago, a post chaise, with a single gentle, and head, as would impress a stranger Spaniards. At last the disorder was suc- man inside it, drove up to the little inn with the possibility of her being the govceeded by a single cry-a shout of victo- on the Pentland Frith, in the North of erness of a vast institution requiring the ry-and the same horsemen who had Scotland, where passengers who were go. iron bound regulation of a powerful will crossed the plain an hour before were reling to cross to the Orkneys usually spent and mighty individuality. turning. But their ranks were thinned, the night. The gentleman, whom we In speaking, also, her manner is useen and the gazers viewed them with anxious will call Mr. McT., was the owner of a tially masculine and aggressive. She and terrified eyes.

aske I the cavaliers who received them at years; in the Mainland, or chief of the makes her telling points with a gusty, the gates of Hennebont.

" And how many the Spaniards ?" "All! Bretagne for the good Counters!" And the squadron galloped to-whisky and the crackling wood fire by by straightening herself up and then knight she saw was Sir Walter Manny, called him, with his wildest tales of adverted with blood and dust.

Even in her manner of dealing with her theme, the Widow Van Cott is strong.

their punishment.

'tell the Countess who rescued you." They pointed him out.

ence of all the knights. out from under his cuirass.

scarf around his body.

The Countess answered by a smile, him sat his own father, who had died which was equivalent to a promise.

Giants. appears of stock. This was the graducommunity. Before the cold shoulder is of stady. The institution ought to pay no community and of the pass in front of their ranks, with her pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at the Palmer pass in front of their ranks at t Among the transients at the Palmer and turning, raised his hand in a warn- few, of whom the majority are foreignto attract public attention. They were registered as Capt. and Mrs. M. V. door, rousing MacT. suddenly from sleep. that he quotes long extracts from voluments among them on her war horse, helmet on Bates, and they were escorted to the Confused at first, yet soon remembering comprovements, involving liabilities that umes and pages of abstruse authors, so head, battle axe in hand, and lance in largest parlors in the hotel. The hackman where he was, he sprang out of bed and would tax the energies of the richest labors of the industrious people around.

If the institution is to be Agricultural, that he is something of an encyclopædia the students must have the opportunity to the students must have the opportunity to began hurriedly to dress himself. In an untenable freight car began hurriedly to dress himself. In an untenable freight car began hurriedly to dress himself. Being a bad sailor, his first glance was naturally around the neck of the Indian Empire which had been intended as a smoking which had been intended as a smoking did as much execution at home with her man who attempted to shield the lady's enough at the sea, close to which the inn first, ever increasing debt; second, condouble fare, and the middle-sized a bad sailor, his first glance was naturally around the neck of the Indian Empire handle of his umbrella was half a yard too The waves thundered on the shore, and Company handed the country to the short. Mrs. Bates is seven feet eleven the little Orkney packet was tossing up Crown in 1858 the debt of India was Detroit Free Press, and for six months and the good lance strokes bestowed in They have been traveling together for years. Mr. Bates is a native of Ken- He was infected with a good deal of 000,000, and, allowing that railways and tucky, and his wife was born in Nova thorough Scotch superstition. Besides canals clear off nominally about £3,700, "list" of several bundred. While rungoodly and the most ardent among the height of a giant is about as hard height of a giant is said that this huge debt Henry Jenkins, Old Parr, or the numer- with every man on board, and MacT., has conferred benefits on India in the ous body-servants of George Washington and his little wife, who was left at home shape of public works. Of the railways came, impressed with the value of the The very day of his arrival at Henne less will not be closely scrutinized by the reader, and the claimant for pre-eminence in age or in height usually get the benefit of a doubt. There is no doubt about the countenance. He says that when he feet four, and found he couldn't stand dimensions of Murphy, the Irish giant, ask internally, "Will the line stretch out fets covered with refreshments. till the crack of doom?" This is the taliest woman who ever traveled in a railroad car. The first impression is al. authority to take the Marchioness to Mechanical Work for Girls.

And Manny bowed low before her and drew his long blade from the scabbard. The others followed his example, and

A slight blush tinged the countess's hammer, the saw, or the chisel. A re-

Two Dollars a Year.

A Dream.

large estate, and an old house which had sweeps neross the platform from side to "How many men have you lost" belonged to his family for hundreds of side with a majestic Juno like tread, Orkney Islands, and was now about to thunder-clappy gusto that would arouse "Ten," answered the first who entered. visit his property. It was a bluster the envy of an obj-time Arkansas stump ing, stormy night, but that only made speaker of the r-rolling, spread-eagle which MacT. sat chatting with the land- coming down rigid and solid upon her Jeanne appeared as soon as the draw lord, who was an old friend both of his heels, with a quivering extension of her bridge was lowered, casting around her father and himself, and who was proud clenched hands, which enhances not a curious and anxious glances. The first of entertaining the "young laird," as he little her effects. He alighted, caused the ranks to be ever, sit late, for the Orkney packet and original. Entirely discarding the opened, and Jeanne saw the three pris- sailed very early in the morning, and old methods, she has little to say of the oners still girt with the chains and cords McT., soon found himself in his cozy, time-honored contrast between the drunk which were to have been the means of well appointed little bed room. The wind ard's home and the temperance home, of was chanting a great Berserker melody, the contented and discontented wife, of "Brothers in arms," said Gauthier, and the sea was roaring a deep bass ac. the clear-headed and rum-muddled clerk companiment. McT., loved those sounds, and mechanic, or at any rate, she serves for they had often been the lullaby of them up with such new and original Then she advanced a step towards him; his childhood, and soon fell asleep. For dressings as almost to distinguish them. he kneeled and kissed her hand in pres | some hours he slept without an image or | Intemperance, with her, is a stronghold a thought reaching his mind; but at to be stormed, and, seizing the flag of But when he attempted to rise, his length, when the morning was glimmer- her religion, she rushes into the breach strength failed him, and he signed to his ing gray in the east, a strange dream with fierce shouts and battle calls, presquire to support him, the blood rushed came to trouble him. He dreamed that pared to assault and carry all, or die behe was in the ancient banqueting hall of neath the walls. In drawing the picture "Holy mother, you are wounded sir!" his old house, in the Mainland, sitting at of the Stars and Stripes flaunting over a exclaimed the Countess, raising him her- the head of a very long table. The ban barroom with its staff stuck in the bungself and stanching the blood with her own | queting hall was now in reality almost a | hole of a beer barrel, she swelled with "Tis nothing," said Walter, recoverwith tapestry, and blazing with a hunthat it could never be the symbol it puring himself immediately and binding the dred lights. The table was filled on both ports to be so long as alcoholic discolorsides, and he thought he glanced curi- ation lingered on its precious fold. She "This is more than sufficient to cure ously down its length to see who his runs through the entire teatures of the me by to morrow, and on the day after," guests were. As he looked he shuddered ordinary temperance harangue—individhe added in a low tone, "I pledge my in his dream. Those who sat at table ual, social, domestic, political, and reself to drive all your enemies from the with him were all his dead ancestors for ligious-but with a stormy, banner bear-Jeanne de Montfort. Every one knows walls of Hennebont if you will but vouch many generations back. He knew their ing earnestness and sincerity that thrill with what intrepidity this heroine of the safe me on the cheek what you have faces and dresses, well from their por- her hearers as with fresh effects and novel traits in the picture gallery. Next to impressions. about a year before. And at the bottom But she freed herself from it the next of the table sat a fair-haired man in a London Examiner seemed to him that he sat for some min- veloping her own resources. The grand ntes as if spell bound, while the spectres mistake we have made has been in ruling murmured together in low, hollow tones. her as if she were an El Dorado of ro-At length they all rose, slowly, one by mance instead of the famine stricken, constant in experiments while yet a boy. for the Duchy of Bretagne. But a fact day by going in person to set fire to dress of skins, who was a Norse chiefwith which every one is not familiar, is Charles's camp and driving him away tain, the founder of the family. It one, in turns, left the hall. But before pauperized empire of reality. What they went, each one paused at the door, wealth there is exists in the hands of the stood. The wind had risen in the night, stantly recurring deficits. and down like a limpet shell. As he £59,500,000. It is now £234,000,000.

ing dream for his life.-The Argosy.

A Parisian Beauty's Revenge. the Legitimist faubourg, and avoiding by the State. The very "improvement" the Napoleonits as "low," gave grand in their business is due to parties. To one of these an English traffic. As to the irrigation works they lady took, uninvited, a friend of the are a dead loss. In Bengal alone the

"I am so conscious of the honer you outlay reaches as under the existing sys visited the Tower of London he tried on have done me in visiting me that I dare tem it must, £8,000,000 the suit of armor worn by the famous not expect a repetition of the unexpected

The pretty woman grew pale, but up straight in it, the helmet and foot smiled and ordered a cavalier to order pieces only being too large for him. He her carriage. The pretty woman was after measuring himself against the chambre to giver her a list of guests inarmor of Guy of Warwick, who was said this, she prepared a circular note, which to be nine feet three inches, was found to she dispatched to each of the invited be several inches short of the measure of late in the afternoon of the appointed our Kentucky champion. Neither Mur. day: "The Marchioness presents her phy nor Guy or on hand to contest these compliments to so and so, and regrets points, and it may be as well not to raise that a domestic calamity will prevent who are all of ordinary height. In a family; she represented that her mother, general way, he is inclined to think the the Marchioness, was inflicted with inlime water of Kentucky has something to sanity, and her madness was in the deludo with it, but he did not give his opinion | sion that she was always having great with the assurance of a scientist, so the parties. For instance, if Monsieur, the interviewer did not press the point, but Doctor, would go to her ladyship's hotel turned to look up to his amiable wife. that evening, he would find her dressed She rose and kept on rising, on being in great splendor, with the saloon illuintroduced, until the visitor began to minated, adorned with flowers, and buf-

most bewildering, giving the impression Maison DeSainte in the event of the that you are looking at a being through representation made to him being con withal most ladylike and well bred in -the only guest; and though the Marmanner and conversation. At the age chioness did not remember his name, she of six she was as tall as her mother— took it for granted she had invited him something over five feet—and she did and was profusely civil. His manner not attain her full height till the age of puzzled, and his questions startled her, the whole truth came out. All Paris was he bowed his head and This we know to be a gross error. We friend she escaped retaliation—a British cheek. Then turning to Sir Walter, but cent writer in the Country Gentleman | They were disputing as to who had gives her experience thus: "Many a the richest father, and the smaller one "I will give him my hand to kiss." woman possesses as much ingenuity as a finally flew that track and called out: "Chevaliers!" cried Manny, brandish- carpenter, or a cabinet maker, and a "Well, I've got the best big sister,

> "I guess not," replied the other. "Yes, I have!"

hidden in clouds of dust, from which hel- great addition to the sitting room." - The big boy had to take a back seat. and the victory is won.

THE PAULE PREACHER Description of Tollow Authors,

About sixty years of age, but with still dark hair and unwrinkled cheake, she is a tall, portly woman, of masculine step, masculine gestures, strong, mascuine voice, and of so much stern, uncom promising force of character indicated in every line of her square jawed, square One Winter evening about 50 years templed, close-lipped, firmly-poised face

The Poverty of India,

India has been for half a century too poor even to bear the slight cost of degazed, his strange dream rose up with In 1858 the charge for interest on debt sudden distinctness before MacT.'s mind. was £2,500,009. It is now over £11, with the babies, had to thank that warn- we may safely say they were built on an dead loss they pay about 37 per centum An English Marchioness, resident in of the 5 per centum dividend guaranteed

A Paris banker, a self-tande man, who also had his suspicions about the real clever, and finessed a revenge. She bed when he breathed his last a few skeleton in the British museum, and the vited for the next soirre. Armed with to say to himself : "When you are rich tion, and on one side the sea, with ships a controversy. It is enough to say that the captain is way ahead of Long John. "Mad Doctor," representing herself as the old gentleman's pocket. The clock did not know of all the old dreams which would chime, the sea roar, the ships toss a magnifying glass. And yet she is not firmed in his own observation. He are backwards and forwards, and he would a monstrosity, but quite shapely, and rived at 10 in the evening; he was the first feel as happy as in the old days when he used to dream about the wonderful treas

An Exceptional Tramp.

21. This remarkable couple appear to live together very happily, and they mean to retire from public life in a short was at last offended and rang for her servants. At the same time he made a nished him at the door and the rapidity proper intimation of his police authority, with which it was devoured evidences and the end of the story is that she was the fact that he was really hungry. He taken off by the doctor in hysterics, and was brought into the house and sat down detained as a prisoner in his asylum until to a table. Before tasting of the food grace. On satisfying his hunger-which consumed some time as well as some importuned his benefactor to give him some work. A surprising willingness to saw wood was manifested. His only dosire appeared to be to perform an indefinite amount of labor.

A Burolic Marriage Notice.

T-stands among the first and enterprising young men of this town, and he has stood it long and well ere only make a good chair cushion as he, but will be able to cover a lounge respectsister in Detroit. She'll stay at home He is a young man of temperate and same lot two years before. In the emo-tion of the moment the man handed to the camp of Charles de Blois, and she have been thrown aside as useless, and with, and if I lose it she'll stay home habitants of that quiet town would be described. That this society discards I know not any crime so great that a the divorced wife the floral tribute to could see that the knight who rode fore yet, with but little expenditure, they from a party and never give me a word drowned in the arms of Morphens, he tleman got off the train at the same time. could be made not only useful, but orna- of sass! Is your sister any bosser than could be seen making his exit gently via